Dear Mr. Patterson:

On September 8, 2005, we sent a letter citing specific violations identified as a result of a Facility Operations Inspection at your above-referenced facility. This notice required submission of acceptable documentation to confirm resolution of all violations.

We have received and reviewed your submitted documentation and hereby acknowledge that we have adequate indication that violations have been brought into compliance. We appreciate your prompt response and cooperation and request that you continue to comply with appropriate technical regulations.

Sincerely,

Eric Supey
